Part 4 30. Jesus Raises a Dead Girl to Life

Easy Read English

"My only daughter is dying!" Jairus cried. He fell at the feet of Jesus. This father was a Jewish leader.

"Please come," he begged Jesus. "Put your hands on her. If you do, she will live."

Some people came up. "Your daughter is dead," they said. "Don't bother Jesus anymore."

But Jesus said to him, "Don't be afraid. Just believe, and she will be healed."

Jesus went to Jairus' home. Since the little girl had died, many people came to the home. They cried loudly. Tears fell down faces. Sad music filled the air.

Jesus said, "Stop crying. The child is not dead. She is asleep."

But they laughed at him. "Of course, she is dead," they said.

Jesus went inside. The 12-year-old girl was on the bed. Jesus took her hand. "Little girl, I say to you, get up." Right away, she got up and walked around!

All were amazed! They told everyone the happy news.

30. Jesus Raises a Dead Girl to Life

Mark 5:35-43 World English Bible (WEB)

While he was still speaking,
people came from the synagogue ruler's house
saying,

“Your daughter is dead.
Why bother the Teacher anymore?”

But Jesus, when he heard the message spoken,
immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue,
“Don't be afraid, only believe.”

He allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

He came to the synagogue ruler's house,
and saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing.

When he had entered in, he said to them, “Why do you make an uproar and weep?”

The child is not dead, but is asleep.”

They ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying.

Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, “Talitha koum!”

which means, being interpreted,

“Girl, I tell you, get up!”

Immediately the girl rose up and walked, for she was twelve years old.

They were amazed with great amazement.

He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.
