Part 4    35. The Last Supper    Easy Read English

The time had come for Jesus to go back to his Father. Now, he would show the world his great love.

Jesus ate a dinner with his 12 disciples. It was the last time they would all be together. Looking upset, Jesus said, "One of you will betray me." The men felt sad.

"Not me, Lord," they said. "I would never hurt you."

Peter said, "I will die for you, if I must."

Jesus said, "Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny me three times." Jesus told them that Judas would betray him. Judas would turn him over to his enemies.

Jesus took bread. He gave thanks and broke it. "Take and eat," he said. "This bread is my body. It is given for you. Do this to remember me."

Jesus took wine. He gave thanks. "Drink," he said. "This wine is my blood. I am giving my blood so that sins will be forgiven."

Kneeling down, Jesus washed the feet of his disciples. "I have done this so you will remember to serve each other," he said. "As I have loved you, so you must love each other."

They all sang a song. But not Judas. He slipped out into the night. The other disciples followed Jesus to a garden to pray.

Questions

1. How did Jesus show his great love for us?
2. What did Jesus do with the bread and wine?
3. Jesus said, "Do this to remember me." This is called communion. Have you ever taken communion?
4. King Jesus washed the dirty feet of his disciples to teach them to serve. Which of your Christian brothers and sisters can you serve?

Prayer

Dear Jesus,
You gave your life so
that my sins could be forgiven. Thank you for your beautiful example
of giving and serving.
Help me to also give
and serve.
Amen

Write in the picture how you can serve others.

35. The Last Supper

Mark 14:17-20; 22-24; 26-31

World English Bible (WEB)

When it was evening, he came with the twelve.

As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Most certainly

I tell you, one of you will betray me - he who eats with me."

They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one,

"Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"

He answered them, "It is one of the twelve,

he who dips with me in the dish."

As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed it, he broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

He took the cup, and when he had given thanks,

he gave it to them. They all drank of it.

He said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many."

When they had sung a hymn,
they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus said to them, “All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.”

But Peter said to him, “Although all will be offended, yet I will not.”

Jesus said to him, “Most certainly I tell you that you today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.”

But he spoke all the more, “If I must die with you, I will not deny you.”

They all said the same thing.
